

Managing your study

This section of the Handbook deals with the academic side of your time at University.

You should make sure you are familiar with the information in here. You will also have a programme handbook, and guides for each individual module. You should read these carefully too, as there may be information or regulations specific to your programme which differs from the standard University procedures set out here.