

How to access your timetable

Students can access a copy of their personalised teaching timetable online using ePortal or via the University of Sunderland Mobile App.

To access your timetable online via ePortal

use the relevant link below:

Sunderland Campus Students

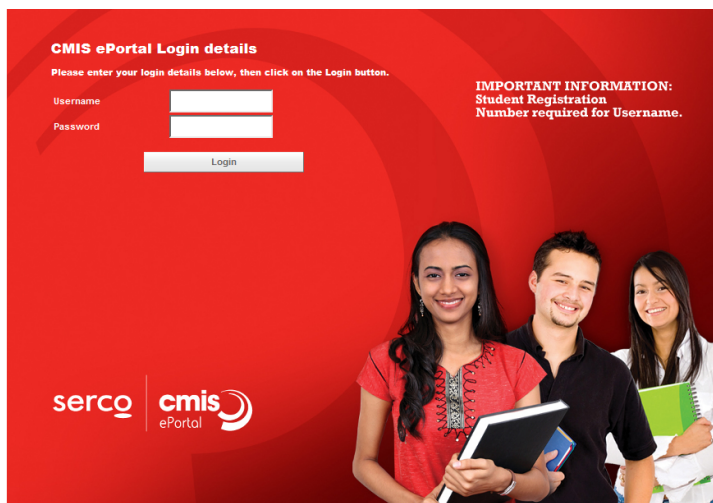

<https://uos-eportal.sunderland.ac.uk> OR

<https://my.sunderland.ac.uk>- click on the 'Timetable' link at the bottom of the page

London Campus Students

<https://uoslc-eportal.sunderland.ac.uk>

You will be presented with the following CMIS ePortal Login page,

In the Username box enter your student number (your student number is also your UCAS number), in the Password box enter timetable. Once logged in you will see your timetable for the whole year. You can use the scroll bar next to your timetable to view classes on a week by week basis.

To access your timetable using the University of Sunderland App

Use the following link: <https://www.sunderland.ac.uk/mobile-app/>

Login using your university login and password

Any problems accessing or understanding your timetable

send an email , providing your full name and student number, to the relevant email account below:

University of Sunderland Students: timetable@sunderland.ac.uk

London Campus students: academic.support-london@sunderland.ac.uk

Important Note:

You should check your timetable on a regular basis for any possible changes. Online timetables will be updated twice daily to ensure personalised timetables are as accurate as possible. Updates will happen at midday (12 noon) and again overnight. During the midday (12 noon) update ePortal will be unavailable for 15 minutes and therefore you will be unable to access your timetable during this short period of time. We apologise for any inconvenience this may cause

Related articles

- How to access your timetable

Related issues