

Supporting International Students

The University has brought together your key support information for International Students during the Covid-19 pandemic into one, easy to access space.

Supporting International Students

Here you can find out how we can help you with:

- Any money worries
- Your wellbeing and welfare
- Your teaching and learning and your course
- Questions about your visa and immigration
- And any other questions you may have.

Visit Support for our International Students site and find out more about how we can support you.

Return to AboutUS